Danger! This could seriously disturb you!

Do not read any further unless you really are fed up running naff mission events that no-one comes to - even Christians! Don't proceed unless you think there are better ways of reaching people who wouldn't be seen dead in a church than what we do now.

First the bad news!

There is no simple snappy answer. You can't buy something off the shelf. We tried that with the same old result!

So what do you suggest

Harmonia believes we have to start by being serious about mission. Serious about telling those who know nothing of God who He is and what He wants to do to help people live fulfilled lives. If you believe that too, let's talk and work out how can we work together?

We can offer:-

- ü To work with your congregation (or a group) to see how we can relate to 21st century people
- ü Help develop strategies for radical mission
- ü Work through ideas and help to set them up
- ü Work with you in your mission initiatives

How much will it cost?

Harmonia is dependent on fees for all its costs, receiving no grants from external bodies. Our fees must, therefore, reflect the true cost of providing our services. Since the types of service we might provide that are covered in this leaflet are very varied in terms of duration and time needed for preparation, it is not possible to give detailed information. A guide to fees is shown on our website but you would be advised to discuss your requirements with us so that we might give a more accurate indication of costs.

What to do next?

You will find our contact details over leaf. A phone call or e-mail detailing your interests will be responded to as soon as possible. We are keen to help you any way we can.
